Customer Impact of Change and Recommended Action:

This change is visible to the customer, but there is no impact or action needed. The customer may see a partial stack of trays with and without this partial label sticker. The application of this sticker is as needed and is used internally; as order processing improvements and Intel Corporation's Warehouse's processes are not required to put this sticker on or remove it. FYI, this change cannot be a basis for claiming for shortage, it is used for internal monitoring/controls of the factory only.

Products Affected / Intel Ordering Codes:
